Georgetown Fall Fair

Date and Time: Friday, September 6 4:00 pm - 11:00 pm

Address: 1 Park Avenue, Georgetown, Ontario

Category: Festivals and Events

The Georgetown Agricultural Society is committed to community involvement in education and raising awareness of our agricultural base. We believe that by staging an event that both educates and entertains, we can provide a venue that unites our community and exposes us to the rich rural and urban variety we have in our locale. Agricultural Societies have been an integral part of Ontario culture and a tradition since 1792. The Georgetown Agricultural Society is a nonprofit organization, operating under its own constitution and by-laws. The operation of the Society is carried on by a Board of Directors assisted by the work of many devoted volunteers. The Society has educated and entertained rural and urban members of this community and surrounding areas by presenting the Georgetown Fall Fair, (at the Georgetown Fairgrounds) the 1st weekend following Labour Day.

Help us celebrate the community and the mission of Green Care Farms at our annual Harvest Dinner!

What: Green Care Farms is a program for people with dementia on a farm. We are the first care farm for people living with dementia in Canada! This 2024 summer season we gardened a half-acre Sensory Garden (big thanks to Andrews Farm for hosting us).

Who's Invited: Our members with dementia, their families, friends and interested community members.

We are nearing the end of our third season of Green Care Farms! It has been another wonderful season and we want to share the harvest with our community. Enjoy with us and try some of our delicious veggies in a simple harvest soup in our garden!

We will also be having a mini makers market! You will have an opportunity to browse an array of unique goods made by creatives from our community. Apply to be a vendor here: <https://docs.google.com/forms>

Campfire Cabaret with Cassandra Warner

Address: 9365 10th Sideroad, Halton Hills/Milton, Ontario, L9T 2X9

Category: Food and Beverage

Imagine this: A professional opera singer serenades you with the most beautiful music whilst sitting by a cozy fire, sipping our sumptuous wine and enjoying delicious fall pie amidst the backdrop of the gorgeous countryside as the sun sets at Andrews Farm.

Doors at 6:30pm

Show at 7:00pm

Your ticket includes:

- A glass of our award-winning wine OR hard apple cider made in-house OR Bennet's fresh pressed apple cider (non-alcoholic).
- A warm slice of pie

This 1.5 hour show includes two 15 minute intermissions for bathroom breaks and food/drink top-ups.

Professional Opera singer, Cassandra Warner (from Milton, Ontario) will be here at the farm for a special one night performance event including recognizable opera, jazz, theatre and cabaret favourites. Cassandra puts on a fun and interactive one woman show with her incredible piano accompanist. Between her informative storytelling, funny anecdotes and incredible vocals, this is the fall event not to be missed. Suitable for all ages!

The Canadian mezzo soprano has garnered international acclaim with a diverse array of performance experience. Miss Warner has excelled at stage roles, concert performances, international competitions and countless special events world-wide. Cassandra has appeared with such prominent opera companies as Vancouver Opera, Calgary Opera, Opera Atelier of Toronto and Opera Toulon of France. She has performed with such distinguished orchestras as Mississauga Symphony Orchestra, Saskatoon Symphony Orchestra, Calgary Civic Symphony, Tafelmusik Orchestra, Oakville Chamber Orchestra, Toronto Concert Orchestra and the Royal Conservatory of Music Orchestra while attending the Glenn Gould School of the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto.

Miss Warner has toured China, the United States, Europe and Canada. Cassandra won first Prize at the Canadian MET Opera Competition and third prize at the Chants de Marmande of France. Cassandra runs a successful private vocal studio in Toronto, is a new member of the Royal Conservatory College of Examiners and has had great success recently touring her one woman cabaret show to multiple venues across Ontario.
