Onscreen at the JET: Sounds and Pressure - Reggae in a Foreign Land

Date and Time: Friday, February 7 7:30 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: 9 Church Street, Georgetown, ON, L7G 2A3

Category: Arts and Culture

At the height of the golden age of reggae, some of Jamaica's brightest stars left their homeland behind to shine their light in an unlikely hub of Caribbean creativity: Toronto. Getting their sound to catch on in Canada wasn't easy. These innovators of rhythm and rhyme had to work against racism, scarce resources and an industry that stigmatized reggae music. But that didn't stop them from transforming the city into a reggae hotspot. With a powerful message of love and a revolutionary spirit behind them, these visionaries faced the pressure head on—and thanks to them, you can still feel the infectious beats of Bathurst Street and Eglinton Avenue reverberating all over the world. Get your free tickets at the John Elliott Theatre Box Office.

Paul Dias: A Man of Colours - Halton Hills Lecture Series

Date and Time: Tuesday, February 11 7:30 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: 9 Church Street, Georgetown, ON, L7G 2A3

Category: Arts and Culture

Inspired by the great Van Gogh, whose influence is evident in his early works, Paul has always strived to capture the essence of life in his art. Over time, he found inspiration in Tom Thomson's vibrant landscapes, admiring how his pieces never resembled photographs. Similarly, Paul aims to transcend photographic realism, offering viewers a deeper, more emotional connection to the natural world. His exhibition tells the story of life through the fundamental elements of growth: roots + water + sunshine = growth. Just as these elements are essential for all living things, they have also been pivotal in Paul's personal growth as an artist. Following the lecture in the John Elliott Theatre, the artist will give a tour of his exhibit which will be on display from February 3 - March 2 in the upper Sisnett Lobby of the Cultural Centre.
