How Does Your City Play?

Date and Time: Tuesday, November 12 7:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Address: 9 Church Street, Georgetown, ON, L7G 2A3

Category: Arts and Culture

City building by its very nature is about the future. What we build today we will live with for the next 50 years at least. So, we need to keep in mind that cities are more than shelter and conveniences. Cities have always been the habitat of the human spirit. Densely populated urban areas have been the birthplace of inventions, new forms of collaboration, social interaction and the ideas that make living a joyful and vibrant experience.

In this talk, Paul Kalbfleisch considers the state of our society in which isolation, loneliness, distrust are at record highs and explains how cities should facilitate social interaction between citizens to directly improve social and economic prosperity and save the world.

This event is part of the Halton Hills Lecture Series. Tickets are available through the John Elliott Theatre Box Office.

The Mystery of Edwin Drood

Date and Time: Friday, November 22 8:00 pm - 10:30 pm

Address: 9 Church Street

Category: Arts and Culture

The Mystery of Edwin Drood is a hilarious, interactive whodunit mystery musical that allows the audience to enter the action and become the ultimate detectives. The show is based on Charles Dickens' unfinished novel of the same name. In the small town of Cloisterham, England, the young and charming Edwin Drood has been mysteriously murdered. But by whom? His leering romantic rival, John Jasper? The infamous purveyor of opium and vice, Princess Puffer? The mysterious Landless twins, newly arrived from Ceylon? Or someone else even more dastardly and villainous? Dickens passed away before he was able to reveal the culprit. Rupert Holmes' award-winning musical (winner of five 1986 Tony Awards, including Best Musical, Book and Score) solves this predicament by asking the audience to choose which character is the killer by putting it to a vote. Staged as a show-within-a-show by the Music Hall Royale, a Victorian London theatre troupe full of just as many colourful characters as the roles they play, this charming and inventive musical is sure to intrigue and entertain any musical or mystery lover
